

Doctoral Student

Company:

University of Bologna

Location:

Italy / Bologna

Discipline:

Technology and Business Models

Employment Type:

Full-time Position for 4 years

Posted:

2022-11-21

Contact Person:

For informal inquiries, please contact Prof. Leonardo Corbo: leonardo.corbo@unibo.it

Doctoral Student - Department of Management, Alma Mater Studiorum-Università di Bologna

Deadline: Dec 14, 2022, at 11:59 PM (CET)

Start date: Mar 01, 2023

JOB DESCRIPTION

We are offering a fully-funded Ph.D. position in the area of technology and business models. In particular, the successful Candidate will work on the research topic “The role of digital technologies in supporting business models for sustainable mobility”. Additionally, activities will be carried on research themes closely related to the newly established National Center for Sustainable Mobility, which aims to support research on smart and autonomous mobility, safety and decarbonization, among others.

CANDIDATE PROFILE

- Master’s degree awarded by an Italian or foreign institution or a “Laurea di Vecchio Ordinamento” (for Italian candidates pre-1999 reform) or a Second-Cycle Degree awarded by academic institutions part of AFAM
- Strong quantitative skills and ability to write reports. Knowledge of qualitative methods is also welcome
- Good communication skills
- Knowledge of Italian is not required

CONTRACT

The Ph.D. scholarship is funded by the EU - NextGenerationEU with funds made available by the National Recovery and Resilience Plan (NRRP).

This is a full-time position for four years.

The salary is aligned with the salary scale of doctoral students in Italy.

The selected Candidate is expected to begin in March 2023.

ABOUT THE ALMA MATER STUDIORUM-UNIVERSITÀ DI BOLOGNA AND THE DEPARTMENT OF MANAGEMENT

The Alma Mater Studiorum – University of Bologna (UNIBO) was founded in 1088, and it is considered the oldest university in the Western world and the first research university in the world.

UNIBO boasts over 82,000 enrolled students, 32 Departments, 5 Schools, 5 Campuses, and more than 5,800 people are members of the university community. It offers 96 international Degree Programmes, of which 79 are held in English., 48 Ph.D. programs, 55 specialization schools, and 95 Master's programs.

The Department of Management (DiSA) is a point of reference at the Italian level for teaching and research activities in Management and all its disciplines. The Department's publication performance has been continuously improving over time and is in line with international standards. The Department's research is generally cross-disciplinary with a strong element of quantitative methods. DiSA faculty have published in prestigious outlets, including the Academy of Management Journal, Academy of Management Perspectives, Journal of Business Venturing, Organization Science, Organization Studies, Research Policy, Strategic Management Journal, and Strategic Organization.

HOW TO APPLY

For your application to be considered valid, please follow the indications that can be found at this link <https://www.unibo.it/en/teaching/phd/2022-2023/management-1> below “2nd NRRP Call for Applications - Further Ph.D. positions” (files “Call for Applications” and “Ph.D. Programme Table”).

For informal inquiries, please contact Prof. Leonardo Corbo: leonardo.corbo@unibo.it

To apply enter one of the following links and register:

<https://studenti.unibo.it/sol/welcome.htm?siteLanguage=it> (Italian version)

<https://studenti.unibo.it/sol/welcome.htm?siteLanguage=en> (English version)

Italian candidates: please use SPID or Tax ID to register.

International candidates: please follow the instructions for international students to register.

Contact Person:

For informal inquiries, please contact Prof. Leonardo Corbo: leonardo.corbo@unibo.it