About our University and the Business School

Pontificia Universidad Católica del Perú (PUCP), which was founded in 1917, is a non-profit academic institution that educates citizen-leaders through a comprehensive humanistic and scientific approach. Our mission is to become an academic leader in multidisciplinary and interdisciplinary education on a national and international scale.

Centrum PUCP, the Graduate Business School of Pontificia Universidad Católica del Perú, represents a plural and tolerant academic community guided by ethical values. Our graduates become business leaders with the highest academic and professional levels, and who think critically and act with social responsibility and ethical principles. They also contribute to building a better world by adopting a new way of thinking about business in which the individual is at the center of our concerns. Students are provided with the tools and mechanisms they need to identify the potential impacts of their actions. Our educational model enables us to measure the social impact of what we offer in the school as a value for future business leaders. In fact, some International Accreditation Companies have praised Centrum PUCP' approach as an innovative strategy that sets it apart from other business schools in our market.

Centrum PUCP offers several international and dual-degree graduate programs, such as the Master of Business Administration and the Doctor of Business Administration. The school also offers executive education programs in a wide range of disciplines, such as business coaching, human resources management, operations management, and corporate finance.

Our Business School is located in Lima, Peru. The campus has modern facilities and classroom technology. Centrum PUCP is accredited by AACSB, EQUIS, AMBA, and BGA, and is consistently ranked as one of Latin America's top business schools.
