«A place where knowledge is created» – As a leading business university we set global standards for research and teaching by promoting integrative thought, responsible action and an entrepreneurial spirit of innovation in business and society.

Associate or Full Professor for Strategic Management in Asia (100%)

The University of St.Gallen and its School of Management are seeking candidates for an associate or full professor for its Asian hub located in the historic heart of SINGAPORE to join the St.Gallen Institute of Management in Asia (SGI):

You will join a small, but highly successful and entrepreneurial team to actively manage the strong growth and shape the long-term development of the SGI in Singapore as well as the university's profile in Asia. You will conduct research in a highly dynamic environment. You will teach on the bachelor, master and PhD level of the University of St.Gallen. You will have the opportunity to develop new academic programmes. You will engage with our corporate partners with your strong communication skills and support the institute's activities with public and private third-party funding.

We seek candidates per August 1st, 2025 or by mutual agreement. We are looking for senior candidates with a track record of publications in leading journals in the field of strategic management and organization studies as well as strong teaching skills including executive education. You demonstrated a deep understanding of and a passion for Asia. Excellence in leadership, academic citizenship and funds acquisition are further requirements.

The position is based in Singapore at the St.Gallen Institute of Management in Asia, which is the local institute of the University of St.Gallen in Singapore and serves as its hub in Asia since 2011.

Our university is an inclusive institution that aims to foster diversity on campus.

For further information, please contact Professor Dr. Reinhard Jung, Chairman of the Search Committee and Dean of the School of Management (facultyposition@unisg.ch).

The application should include a cover letter (motivation for the position, description of teaching, research, and other academic activities), curriculum vitae, list of publications, list of acquired funds, identification of two publications that best represent your current research and contact information for two professional references that we may contact if shortlisted for the position. Candidates should submit their application to the President of the University of St.Gallen, Professor Dr. Manuel Ammann, online via www.unisg.ch/professorships at the latest by November 10th, 2024. Research talks are expected to take place in calendar week 2, 2025 in Singapore.
