- Mentor and supervise students preparing bachelor's and/or master's theses;
- Conduct research in the field of Marketing, publishing in AJG-ranked academic journals;
- Engage in scholarly activities, including presenting research findings at academic conferences and applying for competitive research grants;
- Collaborate with Faculty members on research projects and contribute to academic initiatives;
- Participate in meetings, committees, and other community-related activities.

Qualifications:

- PhD or PhD candidate in Marketing or a related field. Exceptions may be made for candidates with a master's degree and significant professional marketing experience;
- A PhD from an international university is preferred. Candidates with a Lithuanian PhD must demonstrate strong international experience;
- A proven track record of research publications in recognized AJG-ranked academic journals;
- Demonstrated excellence in teaching and a strong commitment to student-centered learning;
- Ability to effectively communicate complex concepts and engage students in a classroom setting;
- Collaborative mindset, strong interpersonal skills, and the ability to work effectively in a diverse academic community.

What We Offer:

- An academic environment where desire and passion to positively impact society is a key motivator;
- Interesting, dynamic, and meaningful work in the field of education;
- Opportunities for professional development and the implementation of your academic ideas (Summer/Winter Academies, Brown-Bag Sessions, others);

- A competitive compensation package – depending on your professional experience, academic qualifications, and workload (lectures, research, publications, and administrative duties);
- Opportunities for research projects, competitive grants, and resources for publishing in top-tier journals;
- International business trips to collaborate with top Universities worldwide;
- A vibrant working environment located in the heart of Vilnius’s dynamic and culturally rich city;
- An organizational culture with a “one step ahead” mindset, whatever goals we pursue;
- Additional health insurance in accordance with the University’s inner policies;
- Additional days off during the Christmas period;
- Wellness Day.

Application Process:
