Assistant Professor of Entrepreneurial Families (f/m/d) - Tenure Track

in the Entrepreneurship & Innovation Group of WHU.

Starting: March 1, 2025 or later

Locations: WHU Campus Vallendar or Campus Düsseldorf

Previous degree: Ph.D. or an equivalent academic qualification

WHU has around 60 faculty members in the fields of management, accounting and finance, economics, entrepreneurship and innovation, marketing and sales, and supply chain management. Research at WHU adheres to three research principles: quality, internationality, as well as practical and academic relevance. WHU faculty consistently publish their research in the most prestigious journals.

The position is based in the Entrepreneurship and Innovation Group and will be associated with the newly established Center of Excellence for Entrepreneurial Families.

Job Description

- Performing research in the field of family businesses and business families and publishing in leading research journals
- Conducting teaching across the various WHU degree programs in English
- Developing and maintaining corporate connections with the center's sponsor and contributing to research dissemination (e.g., participating in respective dissemination events, contributing content to newsletters and whitepapers)
- Mentoring final theses and doctoral students
- Contributing to academic conferences
- Performing services to the academic community

Job Qualifications

- Ph.D. or equivalent academic qualification in management or a closely related discipline with a focus on research on business families and/or family businesses
- Outstanding research record on family businesses or business families as evidenced by publications in leading academic journals, presentations at excellent conferences, or a promising research pipeline
- Teaching experience, especially in English
- Outstanding English communication skills
- International experience is advantageous

What we offer

WHU offers a competitive salary as well as an attractive package consisting of a research budget and a mentoring program for Assistant Professors. The appointment is for six years. WHU offers the opportunity for tenure-track if the WHU requirements for a tenure-track are met (e.g., excellence in research). Moreover, our modern campuses provide faculty with a high-quality research and teaching infrastructure.

WHU is an equal opportunity employer and thus welcomes applications from individuals with diverse backgrounds. We believe in the benefits of diversity and therefore foster an international, inclusive, and inspiring working environment.

We also offer opportunities for personal development, including language courses as well as integration assistance for new faculty members.

Join a top European business school and become part of a strong faculty team committed to excellence in management education!
