Assistant Professorship in International Leadership & Management

Odense, Denmark

Job Description

The Department of Business & Management (DBM) at the University of Southern Denmark (SDU) invites applications for one or more 4-year positions as Assistant Professor. The positions are located at SDU's Campus in Odense and are vacant from 15th September 2025 or as agreed.

Job description

The positions are vacant in the research unit International Leadership & Management (ILM). ILM focuses specifically on the international business activities of B2B companies within the setting of an increasingly internationalized world. The research unit is engaged in two major research themes: International business and international entrepreneurship with special emphasis on international activities of small and medium-sized firms, international market relationships, entry modes, and business models in general. The unit is currently developing additional research expertise in emerging markets, sustainability, and industry 4.0 consequences for international business and international entrepreneurship. The goal of the research unit is to contribute to an improved understanding of the emergence, leadership, growth, and survival of firms in diverse markets, through the study of the organization of marketing and strategic activities both within the firm and through the interplay with other actors on the market.

The successful candidates will be expected to teach and supervise students who participate in bachelor courses on our Business Administration programs and master courses linked to our programs in International Business. The unit has teaching obligations related to marketing (general introduction), emerging markets, international entrepreneurship, and in other international business topics. Part of the teaching obligation is also located at other Faculties.

Applicants' profile

We are looking for applicants with a Master of Science in fields of management, business economics, or adjacent disciplines. Moreover, we expect applicants to:

- Have excellent communication skills.
- Preferably have teaching experience at the undergraduate or graduate level.
- Be engaged, proactive, cooperative, able to work independently and in a team.

The successful candidates will be expected to participate in the various activities within the department and to be present on a daily basis.

For further information, please contact Head of the research unit ILM Professor Martin Hannibal by email at mhk@sam.sdu.dk.
