Job title Lecturer in Marketing/Computing/Graphic Design

Location De Montfort University Kazakhstan (Almaty)

OR

De Montfort University Cambodia (Phnom Penh)

Employment type Short-Term, Block-Based Teaching

Start date Flexible, Academic Year 2025–2026

De Montfort University (DMU) Kazakhstan/Cambodia invite experienced academics and industry professionals to apply for short-term teaching opportunities at our international transnational education (TNE) campuses in Almaty and Phnom Penh. These appointments offer a unique opportunity to gain international teaching experience and contribute to an innovative British education model abroad.

About the Role

DMU follows a Block Teaching Model, where students focus on one module at a time over an intensive 7-week period. We are currently recruiting lecturers to deliver undergraduate teaching in the following subject areas:

- Marketing
- Cyber Security and Computer Science
- Graphic Design

Teaching Block Dates (2025–2026):

- Block 1: 15 September – 14 November 2025
- Block 2: 17 November 2025 – 30 January 2026 (includes winter break)
- Block 3: 2 February – 10 April 2026
- Block 4: 13 April – 12 June 2026

Candidates may express interest in one or multiple blocks.

Candidate Profile

We welcome applications from individuals who:

- Have academic or applied industry experience in one of the listed fields
- Demonstrate excellence in undergraduate teaching
- Are adaptable, collaborative, and culturally responsive
- Are open to short-term teaching abroad

Experience with international or block-format teaching is an advantage.

What We Offer

- Competitive, short-term academic contracts
- Visa and relocation support
- Housing or accommodation allowance
- Access to fully equipped teaching environments
- The opportunity to contribute to the global delivery of UK higher education

Why Almaty and Phnom Penh?

Almaty, Kazakhstan – A vibrant city nestled in the Tien Shan mountains, Almaty offers a mix of modern urban life and scenic natural beauty. With its European ambiance and Central Asian hospitality, it is a gateway to cultural and outdoor exploration.

Phnom Penh, Cambodia – Situated along the Mekong River, Phnom Penh is Cambodia's dynamic capital. Known for its rich cultural history, welcoming community, and fast-growing education sector, the city offers both inspiration and opportunity.
