Multiple Faculty Positions (All Ranks) in Finance, Accounting, Marketing, Operations Management, and General Management

The Faculty of Business Administration at Bilkent University invites applications for full-time, tenure-track faculty positions in Finance, Accounting, Marketing, Operations Management, and General Management at all ranks. We seek candidates committed to producing high-quality research with strong potential to be published in top management journals. The University provides a competitive salary, comprehensive benefits, and extensive research support, including conference travel, private healthcare, and rent-free, furnished on-campus housing. The suburban campus offers a pleasant living environment, complemented by an international school (pre-K to 12) for faculty members with children.

Assistant Professorship applicants should have or be close to completing their PhD. Starting Assistant Professors receive additional research funding and a reduced teaching load during their first two years.

Associate and Full Professorship applicants must have a demonstrated record of excellence in research and teaching.
