De Montfort University Kazakhstan (DMUK), the British branch campus of De Montfort University Leicester, is seeking ambitious academics and industry professionals to join our growing international campus in Almaty.

We deliver UK-aligned degrees with innovative teaching, strong industry engagement, and a clear focus on student success.

We are recruiting for:

- Full-Time Lecturer Positions (August 2026 start)
- Short-Term Block Teaching Roles
- Graduate Tutor Positions

About the Role

The successful candidate will join the vibrant Department of Business Management and Marketing in a teaching-focused position.

You will deliver high-quality teaching across a range of undergraduate modules. Modules may include (but are not limited to):

- Digital Marketing for Business Managers
- Marketing Practice and Industry Insights
- Brands and Consumer Behaviour
- Marketing in a Digital World
- Public Relations
- Brand Strategy and Management
- Creativity, Entrepreneurship and Marketing (Foundation Year)

Candidate Profile

We are seeking an academically strong and professionally engaged educator with:

- PhD (or equivalent) in Marketing, Digital Marketing, Business Administration, Management, or a related discipline
- Undergraduate degree in a relevant field (or equivalent qualification/experience)
- Experience teaching at Undergraduate and/or Postgraduate level

- A proven track record of delivering successful student learning outcomes
- Excellent written and verbal communication and presentation skills
- Strong understanding of industry trends and curriculum requirements
- Ability to lead initiatives and work collaboratively within a team
- A relevant postgraduate or professional qualification (desirable where applicable)

Our Teaching Model

DMUK uses an innovative Block Teaching Model — students focus on one module at a time.

This allows academics to:

- Teach with depth and focus
- Deliver applied, project-based learning
- Integrate industry projects
- Provide detailed assessment and feedback
- Track clear student progression

Delivery includes lectures, seminars, workshops, industry-linked teaching and assessment.

International Opportunities

Staff may also teach at our sister campus:

De Montfort University Cambodia – Phnom Penh

Opportunities may include:

- Teaching individual blocks in Cambodia
- Short-term academic visits
- Cross-campus collaboration
- Supporting student mobility between Kazakhstan and Cambodia

Graduate Tutor Opportunities

Supporting:

- Workshops and seminars
- Academic skills sessions
- Small group teaching

- Student support

Suitable for PhD candidates or early-career academics.

Graduate Tutors should:

- Hold or be undertaking a postgraduate degree
- Being interested in developing a teaching career
- Be strong communicators
