Lecturers in Cyber Security and Computer Science and Graduate Tutor Opportunities

Company:
De Montfort University, Cambodia

Location:
Cambodia / Phnom Penh

Discipline:
Cyber Security and Computer Science

Employment Type:
Permanent Full-time

Posted:
27/02/2026

Contact Person:
If you wish to apply for this position, please specify that you saw it on AKADEUS.

Lecturers in Cyber Security

Lecturers in Computer Science

Graduate Tutor Opportunities

De Montfort University Cambodia – Phnom Penh

Full-Time and Block Teaching Opportunities Available

Start Date: August 2026 or Block-Based Start Dates

Build the Future of Global Education

De Montfort University Cambodia (DMUC) is seeking ambitious academics and industry professionals to join our growing British branch campus in Phnom Penh, Cambodia.

We are building a modern international university based on innovative teaching, industry engagement, and student success, and we are looking for educators who want to be part of something distinctive.

We are recruiting for both:

- Full-Time Lecturer Positions (August 2026 start)
- Short-Term Block Teaching Roles
- Graduate Tutor Positions

Whether you are an experienced academic or an emerging educator, DMUC offers a rare opportunity to gain international experience while contributing to a dynamic British university environment.

The Opportunity

We are seeking lecturers and Graduate Tutors in:

- Cyber Security
- Computer Science

Appointments may be:

- Full-time academic roles
- Visiting block teaching appointments
- Short-term teaching contracts

Indicative Teaching Blocks:

- Block 1: 16 September – 27 November
- Block 2: 1 December – 1 February 2027
- Block 3: 2 February – 23 April
- Block 4: 26 April – 11 June

Full-time staff would normally start in August 2026, while visiting lecturers may join for individual teaching blocks.

A Different Teaching Model

DMUC uses an innovative Block Teaching Model, where students focus on one module at a time in an intensive format.

This approach allows academics to:

- Teach with focus and depth
- Work closely with students
- Deliver practical and applied learning
- Integrate industry projects into teaching

- See clear student progress

Typical delivery includes:

- Lectures and seminars
- Applied workshops
- Project-based learning
- Industry-linked teaching
- Assessment and feedback

International Teaching Opportunities

Academic staff may also have the opportunity to teach at our sister campus in Almaty, Kazakhstan, should this be of interest.

De Montfort University Kazakhstan (DMUK) is a well-established British branch campus located in Central Asia's leading educational hub. Teaching across both campuses provides a unique opportunity to gain multi-country international experience within a single university system.

Opportunities may include:

- Teaching individual blocks in Kazakhstan
- Short-term academic visits
- Collaborative teaching across campuses
- Supporting student mobility between Cambodia and Kazakhstan

Graduate Tutor Opportunities

We are also recruiting Graduate Tutors to support the delivery of:

- Workshops and seminars
- Academic skills sessions
- Small group teaching
- Student support

These roles provide an excellent opportunity for PhD students or recent graduates to gain valuable teaching experience within a British university environment.

Who We Are Looking For

We welcome applications from individuals who:

- Have academic or professional expertise in the subject area
- Are enthusiastic about teaching and student development
- Are adaptable and collaborative
- Enjoy working in an international environment
- Want to contribute to educational innovation

Graduate Tutor applicants should normally be:

- Undertaking or holding a postgraduate degree
- Interested in developing a teaching career
- Strong communicators

What We Offer

Full-Time Roles

- Competitive international salary
- Visa support
- Relocation assistance
- Housing allowance
- Professional development opportunities
- International academic experience

Block Teaching Roles

- Competitive block contracts
- Flexible teaching arrangements
- Travel support where applicable
- Opportunity to gain international teaching experience

Graduate Tutors

- Teaching experience within a UK university framework
- Mentoring from experienced academics
- A strong foundation for an academic career

Why De Montfort University Cambodia?

DMUC is the newest international branch campus of De Montfort University Leicester (UK), delivering British degrees aligned with UK academic standards.

Our mission is simple:

To develop globally capable graduates through innovative teaching and real-world learning.

DMUC offers:

- Small class sizes
- A supportive academic environment
- Modern teaching facilities
- Strong industry engagement
- Rapid institutional growth

This is a unique opportunity to join a university at an exciting stage of development and help shape its future.

Why Phnom Penh?

Phnom Penh is one of Southeast Asia’s fastest-growing cities, combining a rich cultural heritage with a dynamic and modern economy.

The city offers:

- Excellent quality of life
- Affordable cost of living
- Friendly and welcoming community
- Easy regional travel
- Tropical climate
- Historic temples and cultural landmarks nearby

Phnom Penh is becoming an important centre for international education and innovation in Southeast Asia.

How to Apply

Please send:

- A CV
- A short statement of interest outlining:
    1. Subject area

2. Interest in full-time or block teaching
3. Availability and preferred blocks

to: jobs@dmuc.edu.kh

Teach Globally. Innovate Boldly. Inspire Students.

Join De Montfort University Cambodia.

Contact Person:
If you wish to apply for this position, please specify that you saw it on AKADEUS.