PhD Programme in Management Engineering and Real Estate Economics (MEREE)

University of Padua (Vicenza, Italy)

The MEREE PhD Programme offers an integrated, systems-oriented approach to complex challenges in management, engineering, and real estate economics. PhD candidates develop a cross-functional and inter-organisational perspective, combining technological, organisational, social, economic, and financial dimensions to design innovative and effective solutions.

Research areas

- Management Engineering: operations and supply chain management, quality and service management, project and technology management, innovation, organisation theory, and risk/complexity management.
- Real Estate Economics: valuation methods, urban real estate development, historic and architectural assets, land economics, and environmental goods.
- Data Science & Artificial Intelligence: statistical methods for engineering management, data science, and machine learning.

Cycle 42 (Academic Year 2026/27): 4 fully funded PhD scholarships (full-time, 3 years)

- Call opens: 17 April 2026
- Application deadline: 20 May 2026 (1:00 pm, Rome time)
- Programme start: 1 November 2026
