

Clinical Professor of Strategy and Entrepreneurship

Company:

Sy Syms School of Business, Yeshiva University

Location:

United States / New York City

Discipline:

Strategy and Entrepreneurship

Employment Type:

Permanent Full-time

Posted:

23/06/2026

Contact Person:

If you wish to apply for this position, please specify that you saw it on AKADEUS.

Clinical Professor of Strategy and Entrepreneurship, Non-tenure track

Job No: 498920

Work Type: Faculty Full-time

Department: Sy Syms School of Business

Location: Wilf Campus, 500 West 185th Street, NY, NY

Categories: Education/Teaching

Position Summary:

Sy Syms School of Business at Yeshiva University seeks a dynamic individual to serve as a Clinical Professor of Strategy and Entrepreneurship in a non-tenure position. The successful candidate will teach undergraduate and graduate courses in Organizational Behavior, Negotiations, Leadership, and related topics. The candidate will also contribute service to the school and university community, with optional opportunities to engage in research and participate in research seminars. Sy Syms School of Business is committed to providing highly personalized and engaged learning experiences that support students' professional and personal development through mentorship, reflection, community, and service.

Position Responsibilities:

The successful candidate will teach three undergraduate courses in-person twice per week and may hold administrative responsibilities, including serving as Chair of the Department, as assigned. Teaching will take place at Yeshiva University's Manhattan campuses, either the Wilf Campus in Washington Heights or the Beren Campus located at 215 Lexington Avenue. Additional opportunities may include conducting research, participating in school research seminars, and providing service to the school, university, and broader community through participation in institutional events and activities.

Experience & Educational Background:

A doctoral degree from an AACSB-accredited institution with expertise in Strategy, Management, Business Administration, Entrepreneurship, Behavioral Economics, Organizational Behavior, Organizational Psychology, or related fields is preferred. Candidates without a doctoral degree are also encouraged to apply if they are currently pursuing a doctoral degree in one of the listed fields; possess a master's degree in a related field along with at least five years of professional industry experience; or hold a master's degree in a related field and have a minimum of two years of prior college-level teaching experience, with strong teaching evaluation scores preferred. Candidates should also demonstrate a record of publications and/or an active research agenda. Applicants holding a JD degree may also be considered.

Skills & Competencies:

Candidates should demonstrate strong connections with industry, as well as public speaking and teaching experience. Excellent oral and written communication skills are required, along with the ability and willingness to work within a research-oriented academic community. The successful candidate should also promote the use of emerging technologies, including AI, in the classroom. Preference may be given to candidates who have a record of publications or maintain an active research agenda.

The individual will be part of the Strategy and Entrepreneurship Department within the Sy Syms School of Business at Yeshiva University. The primary points of contact for this position will be the Chair of the Strategy and Entrepreneurship Department, the Associate Dean, and the Dean of the Sy Syms School of Business. The selected candidate will design undergraduate courses in collaboration with the Department Chair and will be expected to conduct independent research. Candidates may acknowledge their affiliation with Yeshiva University in any scholarly research they publish and are encouraged to collaborate on research projects with YU faculty and students, as well as participate in departmental and university events.

Application Instructions:

- CV
- Teaching evaluations
- Two letters of recommendation, including contact information of recommenders
- List of publications in peer-reviewed journals and reputable media outlets

Salary Range:

$100,000 - $160,000

About Us:

The Sy Syms School of Business, an AACSB-accredited business school, offers business programs for undergraduate and graduate men and women. It was established in 1987 through major gifts by Sy Syms, then a member of Yeshiva University's Board of Trustees, and other business leaders. The school offers a unique combination of a complete business curriculum along with Yeshiva University's Jewish studies component. To learn more about the Sy Syms School of Business, please visit our website: <https://www.yu.edu/syms>

Founded in 1886, Yeshiva University (YU) has a strong tradition of combining Jewish scholarship with academic excellence and achievement in the liberal arts, sciences, medicine, law, business, social work, Jewish studies, education, psychology, and more.

SSSB will have a number of adjunct positions available for the spring semester, and we invite all applicants who will find a welcoming home at Yeshiva University.

Equal Employment Opportunity:

Yeshiva University is an equal opportunity employer committed to providing employment opportunities to all employees and candidates without regard to race, color, age, sex, national origin, disability status, or any other characteristic protected by federal, state, or local laws.

Application Instructions:

To apply, visit <https://apptrkr.com/7242607>

Yeshiva University is an equal opportunity employer committed to providing employment opportunities to all employees and candidates without regard to race, color, age, sex, national origin, disability status, or any other characteristic protected by federal, state, or local laws.

Contact Person:

If you wish to apply for this position, please specify that you saw it on AKADEUS.