Professor Open Rank in Accounting f/m/d Full-time (100 %)

We are looking for you to enrich EBS. We are a private university committed to educating tomorrow's leaders, those leaders who want to make a difference in the world. Economically, socially and ecologically. We want to help shaping the change in our world for the better. With excellent knowledge transfer and by promoting personal social strengths. Our 2,200 students and further education participants study and conduct research at EBS Business School, EBS Law School and EBS Executive School, EBS plays a unique role in the German university landscape, thanks to our teaching concept of challenge-based learning, personal coaching, extra-curricular engagement and the particularly strong alumni network.

EBS Universität für Wirtschaft und Recht belongs to SRH - a leading provider of educational and health services with 17,000 employees.

What you can look forward to:

- Needs-oriented balance between work and private life through flexible working models with opportunities for mobile working as well as an above-average number of vacation days and our BusinessBike offer
- „We, not ME" - a particularly collegial, team-oriented working atmosphere, open and honest communication
- "Can-do spirit". We are looking for people who assume responsibility in a positive way

- Inspiring working environment with room for innovative thinking and action - ideas for change are welcome
- Flat hierarchies and short decision-making channels
- A uniquely active company network and a strong partnership with our alumni association

Your responsibilities

- Developing and maintaining an active research agenda aimed at making a significant contribution in the field of expertise
- Teaching across all levels in English, i.e. bachelor, master, MBA and PhD programs, supervision / cosupervision of doctoral students
- To contribute to the Executive School
- To interact with our corporate network and to secure external research funding

Your profile

- Doctoral degree in a relevant field
- Evidence of high-calibre research proven by a track-record of international publications
- Experience and a demonstrated commitment to teaching
- Expertise in IFRS, auditing, and ideally in German GAAP
- International applicants are welcome. Moving to the university’s vicinity is expected

Applications will be reviewed on a rolling basis. We are looking for the best. In this, we pay special attention to personality, talent, willingness to achieve and character. We emphasize expressly that all people - regardless of gender, nationality, ethnic and social origin, religion/ideology, disability, age and sexual identity - are all equally welcome here. Applicants with disabilities who have equal professional and personal aptitude will be given priority and/or training.

Become a part of our team and apply online quoting the reference number 16795.
