Build the Future of Global Education

De Montfort University Cambodia (DMUC) is seeking ambitious academics and industry professionals to join our growing British branch campus in Phnom Penh, Cambodia.

We are building a modern international university based on innovative teaching, industry engagement, and student success, and we are looking for educators who want to be part of something distinctive.

We are recruiting for both:

- Full-Time Lecturer Positions (26 November 2026 start)
- Short-Term Block Teaching Roles

Whether you are an experienced academic or an emerging educator, DMUC offers a rare opportunity to gain international experience while contributing to a dynamic British university environment.

The Opportunity

We are seeking Lecturers or Graduate Tutors in:

- Marketing
- Business Entrepreneurship

Appointments may be:

- Full-time academic roles
- Short term block(s) teaching appointments

Indicative Teaching Block dates:

- Block 2: 26 November – 5 February 2027
- Block 3: 8 February – 2 April 2027
- Block 4: 19 April – 11 June 2027

Visiting lecturers may join for individual teaching blocks.

A Different Teaching Model

DMUC uses an innovative Block Teaching Model, where students focus on one module at a time in an intensive format.

This approach allows academics to:

- Teach with focus and depth
- Work closely with students
- Deliver practical and applied learning
- Integrate industry projects into teaching
- See clear student progress

Graduate Tutor Opportunities

We are also recruiting Graduate Tutors to support the delivery of:

These roles provide an excellent opportunity for PhD students or recent graduates to gain valuable teaching experience within a British university environment.

Our People: Who We Are Looking For

We welcome applications from individuals who:

- Demonstrates a strong student-first ethos, with a genuine commitment to supporting student success, wellbeing, and progression.
- Have academic or professional expertise in the subject area
- Are enthusiastic about teaching and student development
- Are adaptable and collaborative
- Enjoy working in an international environment
- Want to contribute to educational innovation

What We Offer

- Competitive salary
