International Negotiation, Mediation, Conflict Management: 1 Associate or Full Professor (Paris Campus)

In response to its continuous growth, IÉSEG School of Management is looking for a full-time professor in International Negotiation, Mediation and/or Conflict Management at the Associate or Full Professor level (Paris Campus, starting September 2027). He/She/They will be a part of the Department of "International Negotiation and Conflict Management".

ABOUT IÉSEG SCHOOL OF MANAGEMENT

IÉSEG holds the "triple crown" of international accreditations (AACSB, AMBA & EQUIS) and is a member of the "Conférence des Grandes Écoles". The School offers Bachelor, Master and Post-Graduate Degrees as well as Executive Education programs. IÉSEG is also one of the leading French business schools in terms of research. The IÉSEG Research Center is accredited by the French CNRS (National Center for Scientific Research). Our Lille Campus is in the heart of Northern France (within the triangle made up by London, Paris and Brussels), and our Paris Campus is located in the biggest European business district of "La Défense". More information on the school can be found here: www.ieseg.fr/en

ABOUT THE DEPARTMENT

The Department of "International Negotiation and Conflict Management" consists of 18 permanent faculty members including Professors with a research mission and Professors of practice in the areas of international negotiation, mediation, law, and conflict management. An overview of our diverse group of professors can be found here: International Negotiation & Conflict Management Department

ABOUT THE POSITION

Research will be a strong focus of the selected candidate as he/she/they will contribute to the vibrant research community at IESEG through their commitment to research excellence. He/she/they is therefore expected to hold a PhD, have a strong publication record in top-tier ABS journals, as well as a good international network.

In terms of teaching, the selected candidate will teach courses in International Negotiation, Conflict Management and/or Mediation at the undergraduate, graduate and/or postgraduate level. In addition, he/she/they will contribute to the development of the Department's teaching programs, including the development of asynchronous/online courses. As such, we are looking for candidates with strong teaching skills, and who are fluent in English, as most courses are taught in this language. Professional experience and knowledge of French are a plus, but not a requirement.

Finally, we are looking for candidates who embody our core values of Accomplishment, Responsibility, Integrity, Solidarity, and Engagement, and fit our diverse and international culture in which 50 nationalities are represented. IÉSEG places tremendous value on diversity and inclusion, and we therefore encourage applications from all backgrounds. Underrepresented groups in academia (notably women, minority ethnic groups, people identifying as LGBTQIA+, people with a (non-)visible disability, and people from lower socio-economic backgrounds and/or economically developing countries) are particularly encouraged to apply, as we are highly committed to ensuring that IÉSEG reflects and benefits from the diversity present in society.

WORKING AT IÉSEG

At IÉSEG, we are committed to providing a supportive and engaging work environment. To new faculty members (and their partner), we offer a wide range of resources to help them integrate into the country, culture and school, such as individualized French language courses, a relocation allowance, and housing search assistance. Moreover, all faculty members have access to a competitive salary, as well as benefits such as French social security, a complementary health insurance, meal vouchers, a profit-sharing plan, and a contributory pension scheme. Finally, the school actively promotes research, provides resources for active scholars (e.g., funding for conferences and data collection) and offers competitive financial bonuses for high-quality international peer-reviewed research publications.
