Profile

We are looking for faculty who wish to invest in a school with a strong identity, based on the quality of teaching and research, the proximity between faculty and students, and multiple strong ties with the local community.

Requirements:

- PhD or Doctorate degree (HDR is a plus)
- Evidence of a strong research record and pipeline consistent with the teaching expertise
- Capacity to coordinate courses and to develop innovative pedagogical methods
- Collegiality and willingness to contribute to the school's life
- Knowledge of French is not required

The salary will be analogous to any prior record and experience. Once integrated in Burgundy School of Business, the faculty will be member of BSB's Research Center (CEREN, EA 7477). A generous budget for conferences' attendance, research support and access to scientific databases is available.

Application procedure:

We strongly encourage applications from academics of all backgrounds (gender identity, ethnicity, nationality).

Applicants should send the following application material electronically to faculty.recruitment@bsb-education.com to be considered for the position:

1. A cover letter
2. A curriculum vitae
3. A brief research (with a clear and detailed pipeline) and teaching statements
4. A recently published research paper
5. Contact information of at least 3 referees
6. Recent teaching evaluations (if available)

Application files are received by the Dean of Faculty and Research and examined at the department level following a transparent procedure, identical for all candidates, in terms of pedagogy, research, and potential contribution to the BSB or campus projects.

Applications will be accepted until the positions are filled.
