THE SCHOOL

Founded in 1909, ESSCA is an internationally accredited business school (AACSB, AMBA, EQUIS) located on 8 campuses: Angers, Aix-en-Provence, Bordeaux, Budapest, Lyon, Paris, Shanghai, and Strasbourg. For more than 110 years, ESSCA has consistently adhered to the humanistic values that provide its ethical foundations. ESSCA, an association under French law, holds the EESPIG label, which distinguishes French private higher education establishments committed to the success of their students.

ESSCA School of Management creates knowledge and develops responsible managers and entrepreneurs, while fully considering the human, ethical and economic dimensions of organisations in a multicultural environment driven by technology and social innovations.

The school offers a wide range of programmes including the Bachelor in International Management, the integrated Master in Management, several Masters of Science, a part-time Executive MBA, as well as open and tailor-made executive programmes.

In addition to disciple-based research groups in each academic department, the school is also home to four research institutes. The research institutes are dedicated to cross-cutting themes that require a multidisciplinary approach. They aim to produce high-impact research and to promote faculty research work to external stakeholders. Overall, they aim to develop collaborative research projects, notably through action research, research contracts or European projects.
