Lab Manager F/H

NEOMA Business School is a leading international management school, dynamic and eager to constantly go beyond the frontiers of knowledge and innovation. We regularly recruit new talents, wishing to invest with us to carry out our mission: the training and support of tomorrow's managers and entrepreneurs.

Join us and become an actor in the realization of our mission of training, evolve in an international environment and experience a culture that erases the boundaries between communities and takes advantage of their diversity. At Neoma, the personalities, backgrounds and professions are varied (+ 170 functions, 270 professors and 440 employees), 30 nationalities represented among the employees, making our three campuses resolutely diverse and multicultural work environments.

Mission: within the Research Department, you are responsible for managing and promoting the activity of the experimental laboratory. 6-month fixed-term contract to be filled on the Rouen campus.

Main functions:

Management of the laboratory and experiments:

- Ensure the operational functioning of the experimental laboratory (software, hardware)
- Organize and supervise experiments conducted by faculty members or external members
- Promote within and outside NEOMA the use of the experimental laboratory
- Ensure compliance with ethical rules during experiments
- Organize the recruitment of participants (students and non-students)
- Train teachers in the use of the laboratory

Profile:

You have:

- A minimum BAC + 5 diploma
- Good knowledge of research and experimental studies
- A mastery of data analysis
- A birth or ability to quickly master the tools related to studies and experiments (for example: eye movement readers, physiological measurement tools, emotion readers)
- A fluent NLA (essential)

You are:

- Excellent interpersonal skills and team spirit
- Agile/adaptable/organized
- Rigorous
- Naturally open and have already worked in a multicultural environment
- Gifted with a great sense of service
