Faculty Positions available at ESSCA

To contribute to its success and development, ESSCA relies on high quality professors and talented teams in all parts of its organisation. Accordingly, and in line with its ambitious Strategic Plan "Odyssée 20-24", ESSCA is recruiting across several campuses.

THE POSITIONS

ESSCA invites applications in the following specialist areas:

- Luxembourg Assistant, Associate, or Full Professor in Finance
- Malaga Assistant, Associate, or Full Professor in Organisation Management

The positions are open to candidates with a proven teaching record and a coherent research agenda (except for the Assistant Professor post in English Language where research does not apply). Candidates should have a high potential or a significant record of academic publications in peer reviewed journals. For the proposed positions, prior experience in programme development and management would also be highly beneficial.

THE SCHOOL

Founded in 1909, ESSCA is an internationally accredited business school (AACSB, AMBA, EQUIS) located on 10 campuses: Angers, Aix-en-Provence, Bordeaux, Budapest, Lyon, Paris, Shanghai, Strasbourg, and, from summer 2023, Luxembourg and Malaga. For more than 110 years, ESSCA has consistently adhered to the humanistic values that provide its ethical foundations. ESSCA, an association under French law, holds the EESPIG label, which distinguishes French private higher education establishments committed to the success of their students.

ESSCA School of Management creates knowledge and develops responsible managers and entrepreneurs, while fully considering the human, ethical and economic dimensions of organisations in a multicultural environment driven by technology and social innovations.

The school offers a wide range of programmes including undergraduate, integrated masters, MSc, and executive programmes.

In addition to disciple-based research groups in each academic department, the school is also home to four research institutes. The research institutes are dedicated to cross-cutting themes that require a multidisciplinary approach. They aim to produce high-impact research and to promote faculty research work to external stakeholders. Overall, they aim to develop collaborative research projects, notably through action research, research contracts or European projects.
