1 PROFESSOR (ASSISTANT, ASSOCIATE OR FULL) in Supply Chain Management (Lille Campus)

In response to its continuous growth, IESEG School of Management is looking for a full-time professor in supply chain management at the Assistant, Associate or Full Professor level (Lille Campus, starting September 2024). Candidates with research and teaching experience/ interest in sustainable operations management, or digitalization in the supply chain are particularly encouraged to apply. He/She/They will be a part of the Department of "Operations Management".

ABOUT IESEG SCHOOL OF MANAGEMENT

IESEG holds the "triple crown" of international accreditations (AACSB, AMBA & EQUIS) and is a member of the "Conférence des Grandes Écoles". The School offers Bachelor, Master and Post-Graduate Degrees as well as Executive Education programs. IESEG is also one of the leading French business schools in terms of research. The IESEG Research Center is accredited by the French CNRS (National Center for Scientific Research). Our Lille Campus is in the heart of Northern France (within the triangle made up by London, Paris and Brussels), and our Paris Campus is located in the biggest European business district of "La Défense". More information on the school can be found here: www.ieseg.fr/en.

ABOUT THE DEPARTMENT

The Operations Management department consists of 14 full-time academic staff and 5 PhD students. Our staff teach and conduct research in the areas of Operations Management, Supply Chain Management, Healthcare Management, Project Management, Product Development and Revenue Management. Our diverse body of permanent professors have recently published articles in in top-tier refereed international journals such as (amongst others): European Journal of Operational Research, International Journal of Production Economics, International Journal of Production Research, and IEEE Transactions on Engineering Management. An overview of our diverse group of professors can be found here: Operations Management Department

ABOUT THE POSITION

Teaching will be the main focus of the selected candidate by teaching courses in supply chain management at the undergraduate, graduate and/or postgraduate level. In addition, he/she/they will contribute to the development of the Department's programs. As such, we are looking for candidates with strong teaching skills, and who are fluent in English, as most courses are taught in this language. Professional experience and knowledge of French are a plus, but not a requirement.

With regards to research, the selected candidate will contribute to the vibrant research community at IESEG through their research. He/she/they is therefore expected to hold a PhD, have a publication record (or potential for Assistant Professors) in peer-reviewed journals, as well as a good international network.

Finally, we are looking for candidates who embody our core values of Accomplishment, Responsibility, Integrity, Solidarity, and Engagement, and fit our diverse and international culture in which over 50 nationalities are represented. IESEG places tremendous value on diversity and inclusion, and we therefore encourage applications from all backgrounds. Underrepresented groups in academia (notably women, minority ethnic groups, people identifying as LGBTQIA+, people with a (non-)visible disability, and people from lower socio-economic backgrounds and/or economically developing countries) are particularly encouraged to apply, as we are highly committed to ensuring that IESEG reflects and benefits from the diversity present in society.

WORKING AT IESEG

At IESEG, we are committed to providing a supportive and engaging work environment. To new faculty members (and their partner), we offer a wide range of resources to help them integrate into the country, culture, and school, such as individualized French language courses (for faculty members and their partner), a relocation allowance, and housing search assistance. Moreover, all faculty members have access to a competitive salary, as well as benefits such as French social security, a complementary health insurance, meal vouchers, a profit-sharing plan, and a contributory pension scheme. Finally, the school actively promotes research, provides resources for active scholars (e.g., funding for conferences and data collection) and offers competitive financial bonuses for high quality international peer-reviewed research publications.
